Solix RTLS Management Platform – Integration Made Easy

Solix Modular – High Performance, Lightweight Modules (On-Prem & Cloud)

Flowcate APIs & DeepHub® – The Power of Standardized RTLS

Dive deeper in Cloud RTLS

Unlocking Simplicity, Performance, and Scalability in RTLS

Say goodbye to complex setups and frustrating integration processes! Our Solix RTLS Management Platform is engineered for effortless integration with our partner platform. Whether it's ERP, WMS, or other operational platform, robust APIs and modules ensure a smooth and rapid integration. This means faster integration, less downtime, quicker insights, and a faster deployment of RTLS at your customers.
Focus on what you do best, while we handle the seamless flow of your location data.

Solix is built with modularity at – its core.

Choose the components you need—Positioning Engine, Rule Engine, Device Manager, and Sensor Engine—and deploy them where it makes the most sense: on your premises or in the cloud.
Each module is engineered to be lightweight yet powerful, so whether you're scaling a site with 50 tags or 50,000, performance won't blink.

Flowcate APIs & DeepHub® – Industry Standards for a Connected RTLS Ecosystem

In the RTLS world, interoperability is key. That's why we support industrial standards like omlox, and middleware such as Flowcate's DeepHub®.
DeepHub® enables:
Standardized Data across multiple positioning vendors
Smooth integration into WMS, MES, ERP, and IoT platforms
Future-proof RTLS architecture—no vendor lock-in
Solix fits perfectly into this ecosystem, offering advanced positioning and management capabilities while respecting your broader integration strategy.

Dive Deeper into Cloud RTLS

Real-time visibility, zero maintenance.
Solix Cloud provides centralized access to live tracking, historical analytics, and rule-based automations across all your sites.
It's secure, scalable, and always up to date—perfect for organizations with distributed infrastructure or remote monitoring needs.
